Once we have received your registration we will forward the details to the outfitter of the hunt, Tatralov. You will receive from them an Invoice with all the banking details for you to be able to wire transfer the amount directly to their bank-account.

Only after receipt of the registration and the corresponding amounts for the reservations made above is the reservation considered firmly booked.

The payment for the basic-hunt - participation is non-refundable in case hunt is cancelled by registrant.

Tatralov reserves the right of refusal to confirm participation at the closed attendance events. Persons, and their companions, participating at the hunts have priority when the, limited, accommodation is being allocated, over those only, e.g., attending the weekend-events.

It is the intention to keep the attendees in the "Palarikovo Hunting Mansion", and very close by accommodations. Once these are fully allocated the event attendance will be closed.
